POLICIES AND CONSENTS

Welcome

Our goal at Back to Life is to provide you with precise, effective and compassionate physical therapy. Please take the time to read the following office policies carefully and to then sign the statements of consent.

Financial Policy

The financial responsibility for services rendered is yours. Payment of charges is due at the time of service.

Appointment Policy

You are responsible for scheduling your appointments.

Appointments are scheduled for one hour each of which 55 minutes is spent one on one in the physical therapy session.

The treatment schedule is booked so that you will not be kept waiting. Failure to arrive at your scheduled appointment time will result in less time available for your treatment.

Appointment cancellations require a minimum of 2 business days' notice. In the case of Monday appointments, please call by Thursday, and for Tuesday appointments, please call by Friday.

You will be responsible for the full payment of a session cancelled without 48 hours notice regardless of the reason for your cancellation.

I have read the above policies and agree to comply with them. I authorize release of any information regarding my treatment in this facility to my referring physician.

Consent to receive services: I hereby authorize Amy Selinger, DPT, OCS, Iris Warchall, PT, DPT and/or Janette Cariad, PT to render appropriate physical therapy services to me. I recognize and agree that I have the right to refuse treatment or to terminate treatment at any time by notifying Amy, Iris and/or Janette. In addition, Amy, Iris and/or Janette may terminate services by notifying me of the termination and reason.

Authorization for Emergency Medical Services: In the event of a medical emergency during physical therapy treatment, I authorize Amy, Iris and/or Janette to provide or obtain such medical treatment as they deem advisable under the circumstances and I agree to assume sole responsibility for all charges for such treatment.

Patient Privacy Notice

Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. The Notice contains a Patient Rights section describing your rights under the law. You have the right to review The Notice before signing this Consent. The terms of The Notice may change. If we change The Notice, you may obtain a revised copy by contacting our office.

You have the right to request that we restrict how protected health information about you is used or disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are not required to agree to this restriction, but if we do, we shall honor that agreement.

By signing this form, you consent to our use and disclosure of protected health information about you for treatment, payment, and health care operations. You have the right to revoke this Consent, in writing, signed by you. Such a revocation shall not affect any disclosures we have already made in reference to your prior Consent. Back to Life Physical Therapy provides this form to comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA).

Patient Rights

The patient understands that:

- Protected health information may be disclosed or used for treatment, payment, or health care operations.
- The Practice has a Notice of Privacy Practices and the patient has the opportunity to review The Notice.
- The Practice reserves the right to change The Notice of Privacy Practices.
- The patient has the right to restrict the uses of their information but the Practice does not have to agree to the restrictions.
- The patient may revoke this Consent in writing at any time and all future disclosures will then cease.
- The Practice may condition receipt of treatment upon the execution of this Consent.
- The patient acknowledges that he/she has received a copy of this HIPAA practice notice.

Medicare Non-Provider Agreement

Patient Full Name:

Patient Address:

This agreement is between, Amy Selinger, PT, DPT, OCS, (Physical Therapist and owner of Back to Life), Iris Warchall, PT, DPT and/or Janette Cariad, PT and the above named (Patient), who is a Medicare Part B beneficiary seeking service covered under Medicare part B pursuant to Section 4507 of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997.

The patient listed above understands that Back to Life is a non-participating Medicare provider but is not excluded from participating in Medicare Part B under Sections 1128, 1156, or 1892 or any other section of the Social Security Act. Based on Medicare's definition of either a "physician" or a "practitioner" an independent, physical therapy practice is not permitted to "opt out" of Medicare. Private contracts, as defined by Medicare, are not permitted between a physical therapist and Medicare Beneficiary. This agreement does not constitute a "private contract."

Amy Selinger, Iris Warchall and Janette Cariad agree to provide all physical therapy services available. In exchange for these services, patient agrees to make direct payments to the Back to Life.

Patient understands, agrees, and expressly acknowledges the following:

- Patient is not currently in an emergency or urgent health care situation.
- Patient agrees not to submit a claim (or to request that the physical therapist submit a claim) to the Medicare program with respect to services rendered, even if covered by Medicare Part B. Such action will result in immediate termination of the therapist-patient relationship.
- Patient acknowledges that neither Medicare's fee limitations nor any other Medicare reimbursement regulations apply to charges for services.
- Patient acknowledges that Medi-Gap plans will not provide payment or reimbursement for the services because payment is not made under the Medicare program, and other Medicare supplemental insurance plans may likewise deny reimbursement.
- Patient acknowledges that he or she has a right, as a Medicare beneficiary, to obtain Medicare covered items and services from physicians and practitioners who have not opted-out of Medicare, and that the patient is not compelled to enter into private contracts that apply to other Medicare approved services furnished by other physicians and practitioners who have not opted-out.
- Patient understands that Medicare payment will not be made for any items or services furnished by the therapist that would otherwise been covered by Medicare if these were not private contract and a proper Medicare claim was submitted.
- Patient elects to refuse the usage of his/her Medicare benefits and agrees to full financial responsibility of all treatment services provided by Back to Life and its affiliates.
