POLICIES AND CONSENTS

Welcome

Our goal at Back to Life is to provide you with precise, effective and compassionate physical therapy. Please take the time to read the following office policies carefully and to then sign the statements of consent.

Financial Policy

The financial responsibility for services rendered is yours. Payment of charges is due at the time of service.

Appointment Policy

You are responsible for scheduling your appointments.

Appointments are scheduled for one hour each. 55 minutes are spent one on one in the physical therapy session. The treatment schedule is booked so that you will not be kept waiting. Failure to arrive at your scheduled appointment time will result in less time available for your treatment.

Appointment cancellations require a minimum of 2 business days' notice. In the case of Monday appointments, please call by Thursday, and for Tuesday appointments, please call by Friday.

You will be responsible for confirming that you will attend your physical therapy appointment at least 48 business hours in advance. If you do not confirm your appointment, Back to Life will offer that appointment time to our waiting patients.

I have read the above policies and agree to comply with them. I authorize release of any information regarding my treatment in this facility to my referring physician.

Patient Signature: _____ Date: _____

Consent to receive services: I hereby authorize Amy Selinger, DPT, OCS, Iris Warchall, PT, DPT and/or Janette Cariad, PT to render appropriate physical therapy services to me. I recognize and agree that I have the right to refuse treatment or to terminate treatment at any time by notifying Amy, Iris and/or Janette. In addition, Amy, Iris and/or Janette may terminate services by notifying me of the termination and reason.

Authorization for Emergency Medical Services: In the event of a medical emergency during physical therapy treatment, I authorize Amy, Iris, and/or Janette to provide or obtain such medical treatment as they deem advisable under the circumstances and I agree to assume sole responsibility for all charges for such treatment.

HIPAA Patient Privacy Notice

Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. The Notice contains a Patient Rights section describing your rights under the law. You have the right to review The Notice before signing this consent. The terms of The Notice may change. If we change The Notice, you may obtain a revised copy by contacting our office.

You have the right to request that we restrict how protected health information about you is used or disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are not required to agree to this restriction, but if we do, we shall honor that agreement (see Notice of Privacy Practices for circumstances under which we reserve the right not to honor your restriction).

By signing this form, you consent to our use and disclosure of protected health information about you for this treatment, payment, and health care operations. You have the right to revoke this Consent, in writing, signed by you. Such a revocation shall not affect any disclosures we have already made in reference to your prior Consent. Back to Life Physical Therapy provides this form to comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1966 (HIPAA).

Patient Rights

The patient understands that:

- Protected health information may be disclosed or used for treatment, payment, or health care operations.
- The Practice reserves the right to change the Notice of Privacy Practices.
- The patient has the right to restrict the uses of their information.
- The patient may revoke this Consent in writing at any time and all future disclosures will then cease.
- The Practice may condition receipt of treatment upon the execution of this Consent.
- The patient acknowledges that he/she has received a copy of this HIPAA practice notice.
